UCPath Notice: W-2s Available Online on January 27

To: General UCPath Communications distribution
Starting on January 27, 2022, all employees can access their 2021 W-2 on UCPath online:

- Employees who requested an electronic version of their W-2 received an email on January 25 notifying them of the online availability
- Employees who did not select an electronic version may still access their W-2 on UCPath and will also be mailed a printed W-2 no later than January 31, 2022

To access the W-2 on UCPath, click on Employee Actions > Income and Taxes > View Online W-2/W-2C

Former employees:
Former employees have access to view or download their UCPath W-2 statements (up to three years after their separation date).

To access their W-2, they can visit UCPath and click on Former Employees. Once logged in, click on Employee Actions > Income and Taxes > View Online W-2/W-2C

Important security reminder:
The University of California does not send W-2 statements by email or text. If you receive an email or text with a link or an attachment to view a W-2, it is a phishing scam designed to gain your private information. Do not open attachments or click email links that claim to provide access to your W-2.

Thank you,
